Confidential D.O.No. Nil. dated 17th December 1922, from the Police Inspector, Chitaldrug, to the District Superintendent of Police, Chitaldrug District.

I beg to submit, I learn from Mr.Govardhana Rao, Sub Editor of the Jaya Karnataka referred to in your kind order No. 369 dated 16-12-1922 who came here last evening, that from Hiriyur he went to Chellakere and he came to Chitaldrug only last evening. I saw the man and spoke to him too. He says he is going to travel all over the Province. He is going from one gentlemen to another and is collecting subscription for his journal; he says, he is leaving this place by this day's train to Holalkere and I have written about this to the Inspector of that place. His further activities will be watched and reported from day to day if he continues to stop here. He is stopping in a hotel. He made no speeches here.

Sir,

Referring to your letter No. P.9678/Police dated the 17th instant requesting to send the information called for in your Office letter No. P.6186 dated the 31st January last, I have the honour to state that this letter of the 31st January 1923 is not available in this Office. I may however state that a letter addressed to Mr. Syed Taj Peeran asking him to explain how this Office letter No. C.J.61/22-23 dated December 1922 regarding the movements of Mr. Govardhana Rao was sent to Government officially in an ordinary way and not confidentially, was sent to this Office by Mr. Taj Peeran for obtaining the explanation of the Judicial Head Munshi.- Accordingly the explanation of the official was obtained and sent with your office letter relating thereto.- This letter is apparently the one referred to by you and if a copy of the letter No. P.6186 dated the 31st January last is sent to me the information called for will be furnished.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Offg. Deputy Commissioner,

Chitaldrug District.
